

She's also a nanny!

Rock Star: INXS
 Mon., 9:30 p.m.
 Tues., 10 p.m.
 Wed., 9 p.m.
 on CBS

Heather Luttrell

AGE: 27
FROM: Atlanta, Ga.
WEEK ONE SONG: "Somebody to Love" by Jefferson Airplane.
WHAT SHE THINKS ABOUT ONSTAGE: "If I'm wearing high heels, I worry about falling down," admits this red-hot musician/painter, whose uncle taught her to play guitar when she was 7 years old.
SECRET TO STARDOM: "Be yourself — they're here to see you."

Rock Star: INXS
The 5 Hottest Singers

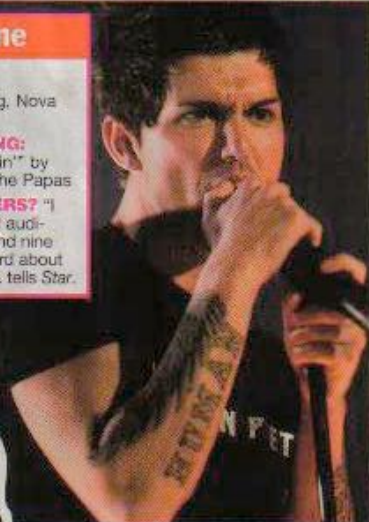

THERE'S little wonder why the new reality show Rock Star: INXS has amped up the nation: It may have the sexiest stars on TV! This hipper version of American Idol has 14 hotties (15 before the first episode eliminated one) living together in a Hollywood Hills mansion and each performing a classic rock song on-stage. Every week one contestant is cut out, and the last one standing becomes the new front man, or woman, of legendary band INXS. "Rockers are a unique breed of people because there are no rules," says Brooke Burke, who along with former Red Hot Chili Pepper Dave Navarro co-hosts the show. "It's a far cry from bubblegum pop, and a lot edgier." Meet the five contestants groupies will go most gaga over.

—MATT COPPA +

J.D. Fortune

AGE: 31
FROM: Saltspring, Nova Scotia
WEEK ONE SONG: "California Dreamin'" by The Mamas and the Papas
PSYCHIC POWERS? "I had a dream that I auditioned for INXS, and nine months later I heard about the auditions," J.D. tells Star.

Ty Taylor

AGE: 36
FROM: Montclair, N.J.
WEEK ONE SONG: "Heartbreaker" by Pat Benatar.
ODD JOB: "I've only had one day job in my life, and that was working at a condom store," Ty tells Star.
INFLUENCES: This former New Jersey boy's musical style emerged in seventh grade when he first heard punk band The Clash's album Combat Rock. "That's when I started living through rock and soul as a combination," he says. "When I'm onstage I just allow the music to run through me like an unleashed wildfire."

Deanna Johnston

AGE: 36
FROM: Kingston, Ontario
WEEK ONE SONG: "Should I Stay or Should I Go?" by The Clash.
WHY SHE SINGS: "To win back a boyfriend who was unfaithful with a singer! Now happily married, her idea of how to be a great lead singer is "giving away your emotions, being vulnerable and exposing your soul."

He's a young Mick Jagger!

Neal Carlson

AGE: 29
FROM: Queens, N.Y.
WEEK ONE SONG: "Fortunate Son" by Creedence Clearwater Revival.
BEST THING ABOUT THE SHOW: "Shaking my tail onstage, and skin-tight glitter pants," he says. If he wins, this blissfully married father-to-be will "take my girl and our baby on vacation."
WHY HE'S HOT: "I command the audience by being totally free of inhibitions and insecurity."